

8th Interscholastic Student HIV & Sexual Health Research Symposium 2023 CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Abstracts due 18 June 2023 | Symposium 12 July 2023

AUT Child & Youth Research Centre (CYHRC) is pleased to host the eighth annual interscholastic student HIV & Sexual Health research symposium, following previous successful events at AUT, University of Auckland and Massey University. This symposium showcases student projects and brings together HIV and Sexual Health researchers and stakeholders within New Zealand. This is a free symposium, with no fee for registration or participation. Morning tea and lunch will be provided. The symposium takes place at AUT South Campus.

Call for abstracts

We are accepting abstracts for oral, poster or pecha kucha (<https://www.pechakucha.com>) presentations from students from New Zealand universities doing Honours, Masters, or PhD programmes. Research projects on all aspects related to HIV and Sexual Health (e.g., social, epidemiological, clinical, policy, etc.) are welcomed, Abstracts should be no more than 250 words. Feel free to send us your draft abstract for feedback. There is an opportunity to publish your presentation in a special issue of Pacific Health (<https://ojs.aut.ac.nz/pacific-health/>).

Abstract submissions must include:

- Name and Institution
- Presentation preference : Oral onsite, oral via zoom, poster or pecha kucha
- Degree toward which you are working
